INDEX

TO THE

FORTY-FOURTH VOLUME

OF THE

Weekly Entertainer.

A.

AFFECTATION, on, 517.
Affection, the tears of, 341.
Africaine merchant ſhip, narrative of the mutiny on board it, 321.
Alfred, account of his murder, in 1056, 385.
Algerines, narrative of the wreck of ſome, near Penzance, 52.
Anagrams, 118, 338. Anſwers to, 18, 256, 538.
Anecdote of a ſervant's opinion of actors, 6. of John Lord Jefferies, 54. of the affection of a bird for its young, 97. of the abbe de St. Pierre and Cardinal Fleury, 137. of the duke of Gordon and one of his tenants, 157. of Lord Chief Juſtice Holt, 177. of Dr. Walter Pope, 217. of Captain Maitland and Captain Dixon, 257. of the father of Biſhop Horne, 277. of Peter I. of Ruſſia, 334. of the late Mr. Coſtello, 336. of Archbiſhop Uſher, 337. of John Ellis, Eſq. 352. of a glazier and a ſurgeon, 377. of Dr. Darwin, 404. of the marquis of Bute, 417. of Henry, prince of Wales, 457. of Admiral Campbell, 471. of Bonaparte, 476. of George I. 536.
Anecdotes of that eccentric character, Henry Paulett, 126. of Henry IV. king of France, 148. of that ſingular genius, Mr. T. B. Oldfield, 256. of John Way, eſq. 274. of Commodore Wilſon, 392. of General Freke, 409. of Mr. Morland, 465. of the celebrated duke of Sully, 535.
Appoſite text, 396.
Apprentices, caution to, 297.

B.

Barking trees, experiment of, 391.
Betty, William Henry, memoirs of, 481.
Bigamy, intereſting trial for, 201, 229.
Bonaparte, account of his levee, 421. character of, 476.
Bon mots, 38, 177, 196.
Boulogne, obſervations on the late attempt to deſtroy the flotilla there, 423.
Burying urn, account of a curious, 255.
Bull racing in Hampſhire, whimſical, 313.
Burning well near Chatigan, account of the, 333.

C.

Camelford, Lord, ſubſtance of his will, 221.
Canine madneſs, remarkable caſe of, 212.
Capper, Mr. account of that extraordinary character, 253.
Charades, 18, 78, 98, 119, 138, 178, 198, 218, 238, 256, 278, 298, 338, 378, 398, 418, 438, 478, 498, 518, 538. Anſwers to, 58, 78, 119, 138, 158, 198, 218, 238, 258, 278, 318, 338, 398, 418, 458, 478, 538.

Chatham,

Chatham, particulars of the death of the firſt earl of, 155.
Children and relations, Mr. S. Richardſon's thoughts on the loſs of, 275.
Chineſe children, particulars of the expoſure of, 170.
Chriſtmas bill of fare, 518.
Clergyman's legacy to his pariſhioners, by the Rev. W. Gilpin, 209.
Companions or friends, on, 415.
Connoiſſeur, the, 474.
Copenhagen, deſcription of, 401, 427.
Cornelly, memoirs of Mrs. 261.
Country aſſize, ſketch of a, 513.
Cromwell, Oliver, his letter to his wife, 335.
Cruelty, juſt puniſhment of, 435.

D.

Delicacy, on, 165.
Dorſetſhire fellowſhip, 517.
D——y, hiſtory of the family of, 293, 301, 323.
Drinking to exceſs, inſtances of its dreadful conſequences to military men, 92.
Duelling, the origin of, 441.
Duncan, life of the late Admiral Lord, 214.

E.

Eaſt Somerſet regiment, the Rev. Mr. Woodforde's prayer on the conſecration of their colours, 153.
Enigmas, 158, 198, 238, 278, 298, 398, 438, 458, 478. Anſwers to, 18, 98, 158, 178, 318, 358, 378, 438, 478.
Epiſtle, curious, 472.
Evelyn, character of the late Sir G. S. 381.

F.

Faſhionable world diſplayed, 374.
Faſhions, 17, 51, 125, 217, 257, 353, 414, 467.
Fawcett, Sir William, biographical ſketch of the late, 65.
Flindell and Peyrouſe, narrative reſpecting thoſe unfortunate circumnavigators, 171.
Fordyce, character of the late Dr. James, 537.
Fortitude, on, 397.
Fragment, a, 424.
French ſuperſtition, particulars of the, 113.
French, obſervations on the, 335.
Friendſhip, rules for eſtabliſhing true, 355.

G.

Gallipolis, account of, or the French colony on the Ohio, 281.
Gaming, Colonel Daniell's account of the manner in which he was cured of that vice, 121.
Gaming, ill conſequences of an itch for it, particularly to gentlemen in the army, 146.
German princes, on the, 516.
Gilpin, Rev. William, particulars of the late, 15.
Gimmal ring, obſervations on the, 356.
Glenorchy, Lady, converſion of, 411.
Goats and Goats' horns, obſervations reſpecting, 85.
Gout, dialogue between the, and Mr. Franklin, written by Dr. Franklin, 309.
Grand Chartreuſe, curious entries made in the album of the, 436.
Graves, Rev. Mr. character of the late, 485.

H.

Hamilton, General, and Vice-Preſident Burr, account of their duel, 181.
Hamilton, General, oration at his funeral, by Governor Morris, 406.
Hardinge, Juſtice, his charge to the grand jury at Brecon ſeſſions, 175.
Harrington, memoirs of the earl of, 128.
Hawkeſworth, Dr. his letter on dedications to monarchs, 456.
Heavens, notice of a ſingular appearance in the, 497.
Hermiteſs of North Salem, 510.
Hibernian humility, 377.
Hindoſtan widows, affecting inſtance of one who burnt herſelf on the funereal pile of her huſband, with hiſtorical obſervations, 521.

Hint,

Hint, useful, 137.
Historical knowledge, the use of, 132.
Hurricane, account of one in the Chinese seas.

I.

Incident, singular, 137.
Inertion, instance of a case of complete, 87.
Invasion, account of a Dutch attempt at, made in 1667, frustrated by the gallantry of the Devonians and Cornwallians, 210.

J.

Jacob and Huttig, account of those ingenious mechanics, 533.

L.

Ladies, rules for them to guess at the disposition of their husbands, 97.
Leaden coffins, on, 417.
Learned men, instances of their poverty, 351.
Leech, notice of a particular kind of, 316.
Letter, the fatal, 455.
London loyal volunteers, account of the grand presentation of colours to the, 1, 33.
Love, beauty, and vanity, 437.
Lover and the husband, contrast between the, 416.
Louis XVI. account of his journey from Paris to Varennes, and back again, in June, 1791, 7, 29, 41. particulars relative to his trial, 61.

M.

Maltese, character of the, 412.
Man with the iron mask, new account of the, 515.
Marble House and the Pfauen Insel, in Prussia, description of the, 152.
Mastiff dog, providential escape from drowning by the assistance of one, 537.
Melbury Osmond church, copies of inscriptions there, 57.
Mental taste, on, 106.
Misers, extraordinary, 204, 452, 505.
Music, on, 456.

N.

Narrative, affecting little, 190.
Nautical discovery, 194.
Negroes of Dahomy, curious ceremony among the, 148.
New Holland, account of, 213.

O.

Oldstile, Oliver, his account of his journey to Bath, 530.
Oyster, account of the, 289.

P.

Paine, Thomas, Mr. Yorke's account of his interviews with, 103.
Paris markets and coffee-houses, descriptions of, 393. the environs of, 451.
Parker, particulars of the late Vice-Admiral Christopher, 16.
Passions, on the natural expressions of the, 536.
Perjury, on the frequency of, 236.
Peyrouse, La, and Captain Flindell, narrative of those unfortunate circumnavigators, 171.
Pichegru, life of General, 81, 108.
Pitt, character of the Right Hon. William, 370.
Political convulsions, 496.
Pride, instances of ridiculous, 167.
Providence, on the blessings of, 276.

Q.

Quakers, their yearly epistle, 141.
Questions, 137, 197, 277, 297, 317, 337, 357, 377, 417, 457, 537. Answers to, 77, 157, 237, 497.

R.

Rebuses, 18, 58, 78, 98, 138, 178, 198, 218, 238, 256, 278, 318, 338, 358, 378, 418, 458, 478, 498, 518. Answers to, 58, 78, 98, 178, 218, 238, 297, 318, 358, 398, 438, 498, 518, 538.
Reflections, 77, 177, 237, 317, 337, 377, 497.
Religion and real politeness, the first earl of Chatham's remarks on, 101.
Remarks, commercial, 457.
Retired life, miseries of a, 506.

Rosa,

Roſa, a tale, 243.
Ruſſian murderer, narrative of the dreadful puniſhment of one, 90.
Ruſſian patriotiſm, 56.

S.

Scandinavian tales, 432.
Sheep, obſervations on their management in South Wales, 315.
Ships of war and gun-boats, compariſon of their general powers, 241.
Sierra Leone, account of its preſent ſtate, 161.
Sovereigns, leſſon for, 475.
Stone ſhips, antiquity of the, 389.
St. Domingo, geographical, hiſtorical, and political view of, 186, 205, 224, 247, 270, 285, 305, 326, 343, 364.
Summer's evening, delineation of a, 134.

T.

Talbot, Mary Anne, otherwiſe John Taylor, account of, 233.
Talleyrand, memoirs of Monſieur, 361.
Theluſſon maſquerade, deſcription of the, 68.
Time, on the improvement of, 17.
Tooke, Mr. John Horne, ſketch of his life, 442.
Trials, intereſting, 21, 46, 144, 201, 229, 249, 265, 453, 468, 490, 530.
Trieſte and its vicinity, deſcription of, 461.
Tullock, Mr. ſketch of that unfortunate mathematician, 425.
Twining, account of the late Rev. Mr. 197.

V.

Verſes, to Lavinia, 19. Anna's grave, ibid. ſong, ibid. the child of ſorrow's tale, 20. ode from Anacreon, ibid. on the death of Mary Lavers, who died on the birth of her firſt child, 39. on the death of an infant, 40. the ſeaſons, 59. Kent, a poem, ibid. on a perennial woodbine, at Cl——ton, 60. addreſs to the nightingale, by T. Shoel, 79. Alexis to Celia, 80. Dickinſon's tranſlation of Biſhop Lowth's Latin epitaph on his daughter, 80. the complaint, 99. ejaculations written during a thunder ſtorm at midnight, by J. Paſcal, ibid. the wild roſe, ibid. on a proſpect of leaving my native land, 100. addreſs to Medora, ibid. epitaph on an infant, ibid. to the cuckoo, by T. Shoel, 119. on the late gallant exploits of the Britiſh troops in the Eaſt-Indies, by P. Gove, 120. addreſs to friend, written at Matlock Bath, in June, ibid. elegy on ſeeing a ſcull, 139. to a butterfly, by J. Paſcal, ibid. the outcaſt, by L. S. Temple, 140. to a perſon who wrote many dull verſes in bed, ibid. addreſs to the people of Great-Britain on the threatened invaſion, by Dr. Charles Burney, 159. lines by the ducheſs of Devonſhire on Mr. Fox, 160. morning, a ſonnet, ibid. imitation of an admirable French hymn, by M. des Barreaux, 179. ode to fancy, by the late Dr. Glaſſe, ibid. harveſt morning, by W. Holloway, 180. epigram, ibid. on love, ibid. on health, ibid. delirium, by Mrs. Montolieu, ibid. evening, a ſonnet, 199. the firſt day of rain after a drought, ibid. lines on the death of Mr. Hare, by the ducheſs of Devonſhire, 200. lines written by Mary Robinſon, on her ſiſter, ibid. ſtanzas to Mary, 219. Mary's dream, ibid. on Engliſh poetry, by H. Fletcher, ibid. the foundling, 220. epitaph on a young lady who died ſuddenly, written by her lover, ibid. lines by a young lady, on having attained her eighteenth year, 239. the dying lover, ibid. picture of the phariſee, by W. Cowper, Eſq. 240. to a moth hovering round my candle, by J. Paſcal, 257. lines to a young female friend, ibid. addreſs to a naiad, ibid. the lily and the roſe, 260. on the Eolian harp, ibid. addreſs to my dear little nephew, J. F. M——, by Palemon, 279. Henry's complaint, by J. Paſcal, ibid. addreſs dreſs to the pen, 280. lines written by a young gentleman during a ſevere illneſs, ibid. to the moon, 299. elegiac lines, writby Dr. Booker, and founded on a recent fact, ibid. ſtanzas to friendſhip, 300. lines by the man who forgot he had been married, and by the woman whom he forgot, ibid. a morning walk, by W. Gifford, 319. night, a ſonnet, 320. lines on the ſeaſons, by R. Bloomfield, ibid. epigram, ibid. on Palemon's ſecond excurſion to Truro in the kittereen, 339. lines from a huſband to a wife, on the fourteenth anniverſary of their marriage, July 6, 1804, ibid. to memory, by Miſs C. Symons, 340. Eliza, written at an inn, ibid. content, ibid. motives for war, ibid. the ſpiritual guide, by Mr. Cowper, 359. acroſtic, 360. reflection, ibid. ſonnet, ibid. paraphraſe on the 1ſt ode of the 3d book of Horace, 379. elegy on Miſs Bella Packwood, by Mr. Oulton, ibid. a love-letter, and its anſwer, 380. adverſity, ibid. addreſs to the moon, ibid. epigram, ibid. Palemon's farewell to the muſe, 399. to jealouſy, ibid. on the death of a mother, 400. the timid lover, by Sir J. Moore, ibid. ſketch of the cottage, by the Rev. J. Bidlake, 419. the caſtle-builder, or the French at their journey's end, ibid. the lawyer's defiance, 420. on a moſt excellent woman, ibid. retroſpective view of ſome of the ſtates of Europe, compared with the preſent ſituation of Great-Britain, by Lavinia, 439. ode to Jami, from the Perſian, 440. ſong, by Mrs. Hayley, 459. the volunteer ſtripling, by S. T. Coleridge, ibid. on paſſing thro' a church-yard, 460. epitaph, by Sir John Moore, ibid. remember the poor, 479. the orphan girl's tale, ibid. epigram, 480. picture of morning, 499. lines addreſſed to a friend, on receiving blanks in the lottery, ibid. ſtanzas on a young lady, 500. the laſt day, by W. Gifford, 519. the robin, 520. the Bengal evening, 539. to Mary, ibid. the good man's deathbed, ibid. the bad man's deathbed, 540.

Vice, on the beſt means of ſuppreſſing, by Biſhop Watſon, 73.

W.

Waſhington, General, journal of his miſſion to carry remonſtrances to the French commanding officer on the Ohio, 331.

Welch mountaineers, character of the, 449.

Weſt-India docks on the Thames, deſcription of the, 191.

Weſt-Indies, obſervations on the preſent critical ſituation of the, particularly Jamaica, 150.

William and Mary, a fragment, 330.

Window tax, the new, 476.

Woburn ſheepſhearing, account of the, 11, 25.

Woodard, Captain David, narrative of his ſufferings, and thoſe of four ſeamen, on the iſland of Celebes, 486, 501, 526.

Y.

Young, Timothy, his complaint againſt his old relations, 373.